

Announcement of Job Vacancies for Construction Sector Workers in Israel (Infrastructure Sub sector)

Applications are hereby invited from the qualified skilled workers for the following job categories to fill immediate vacancies in Israel, under the G to G arrangements.

The workers typically take place outdoors in variable weather conditions and requires adherence to strict safety protocols. The job also demands physical endurance, as it involves working with heavy materials and tools.

Profession	Expected no. of positions	Special Qualifications Required
Welders	600	At least two years of experience in welding and framing of steel or iron elements, horizontal, vertical, overhead welding. Knowledge of reading drawings and familiarity with the necessary tools/ equipments. Knowledge of the safety rules required in performing these jobs, including the equipment required for safe work. Certification certificate: MIG welding/ Ferro certificate/ FCAW certificate
Longitudinal electrical/communication infrastructure layers	650	Two years of experience in laying longitudinal electrical/ communication infrastructures. Knowledge of reading drawings for laying electrical/ communication infrastructure. Knowledge of measuring lengths/ distances, diameters and slopes. Knowledge of the use of safety equipment to perform these jobs. Knowledge of digging and laying longitudinal electrical/ communication infrastructures.
Water and Sewerage Infrastructure Layers/ Connectors	650	Two years of experience in laying and connecting water and sewerage infrastructures. Reading a drawing for laying/connecting a water infrastructure drawing. Knowledge of measuring lengths/distances, diameters and slopes. Knowledge of the use of safety equipment to perform these jobs. Knowledge of digging to lay water infrastructure/pipes.
Operators of machinery and heavy equipment.	300	Operators of various machines for moving dirt, compaction of road structure and excavation.
Curbstone and interlocking stone layers	Will be decide by the PIBA	Two years of experience in laying curbstones and interlocking stone. Reading a drawing for laying curbstones and interlocking stones. Preparing the area and slopes, including drawing elevation lines and slopes. Knowledge of the use of safety equipment to perform these works.

Pre- requisites

- Should be aged between 25 age – 45 age
- Should be a Sri Lankan citizen with a valid passport.
- Do not have parents/ a spouse or children working or residing in Israel.
- Should be physically and mentally fitness for intense outdoor labor in Israeli climatic conditions in the construction sector including work at height & lifting heavier weights.
- Applicants should not suffer from diseases or chronic medical conditions (tuberculosis, hepatitis, syphilis, and gonorrhea, AIDS or mental illness).
- Should be submit clean police report in Sri Lanka & should not have any history of drug or alcohol abuse. If you are worked in any country over 6 months need to submit the police report from the relevant country as well.
- Applicants should pass the year 10 of schooling.
- Should have basic knowledge of English.
- Should have two years experience in the infrastructure relevant categories except Operators of machinery and heavy equipment.
- Selected candidates should agree to undergo all medical & other requirements for entry into & stay in Israel as required by Israeli authorities.
- Selected employees should not reside illegally in Israel or other than a temporary worker.
- Work visa may usually extend for one year at a time, up to maximum of 5 years.
- All conditions should fulfill any other relevant criteria as requested by PIBA (Population Immigration and Boarder Authority) and a coordinated with SLBFE.
- The employees will be tested in professional exams by Israeli examiners & SLBFE will conduct an interview & pre test for selection to the professional test.
- The employees will be tested in professional exams by Israeli examiners who will check their suitability for the position. Estimated number of workers by the PIBA is 2200 and the qualified applicants will be selected randomly (Lottery) Israel from the final database.
- There will be no recruitment fees collected from the applicants at any stage of the recruitment process. Selected candidates should pay the SLBFE registration fee, Processing fee and Air Ticket Charges.
- If there any inquires and complaints regarding illegally requested additional payments can be informed in writing via israel_construction@slbfe.lk.

The worker's estimated gross salary, before permitted deduction and taxes, shall not be less than 6,247.67 NIS for each full month of work (figured as per the current monthly minimum wage in Israeli construction sector for full time employment.)

Applicants also fulfill the relevant pre qualifications mentioned above may register via online at the official website of the SLBFE from 06/08/2025.

The Chairman
Sri Lanka Bureau of Foreign Employment.