

we are Hiring!

At W15 Collection, moments of true beauty are never too far away. Our distinctively created spaces and world-class service go above and beyond in transforming special and unique moments into ever-lasting memories. W15 Collection is looking for a passionate and creative Group Mixologist to elevate our beverage experiences across our portfolio of boutique hotels. This role is ideal for someone who blends artistry, innovation and leadership, while maintaining exceptional quality and guest satisfaction.

GROUP MIXOLOGIST / SENIOR MIXOLOGIST

WHAT YOU WILL BE OVERLOOKING

- Design, develop and standardize signature cocktail and mocktail menus across all W15 Collection properties.
- Lead mixology innovation by introducing seasonal, locally inspired, and experiential beverage concepts, incorporating Sri Lankan ingredients, flavours, and storytelling.
- Train, mentor, and upskill bar teams across properties to maintain consistent taste, presentation, service etiquette, and guest engagement standards.
- Conduct regular bar audits, tasting sessions, and quality checks to ensure excellence across all locations.
- Collaborate with Chefs and F&B teams to create pairing menus, themed nights, and immersive food & beverage experiences.
- Monitor beverage costs, wastage and inventory controls in collaboration with property teams.
- Ensure compliance with hygiene, safety and responsible alcohol service standards.
- Support brand activations, guest experiences, events and special promotions related to beverages.
- Stay updated on global mixology trends and adapt them to suit the W15 brand identity.

WHAT WE ARE LOOKING FOR

- Proven experience as a Mixologist or Senior Bartender in a reputed hotel, resort, or high-end bar.
- Strong knowledge of classic and contemporary cocktails, spirits, wines, and bar operations.
- Creative mindset with a passion for innovation and storytelling through beverages.
- Experience in training and managing bar teams across multiple locations is an advantage.
- Willingness and flexibility to travel and work across multiple W15 Collection properties as per operational and business requirements.
- Excellent communication and interpersonal skills.
